Screen Actors Guild New Mexico Branch Annual Membership Meeting and Presentation:

“Solving the New Media Mysteries” with special guest SAG National Director of New Media, Mark Friedlander

When people think Screen Actors Guild, they think film and television. They don't always think new media—but they should.

Join us for this rare opportunity to hear from the Guild's leading authority on new media. This is the dawn of a new era in entertainment and Mark's expertise puts him at the forefront of emerging technologies. During this discussion, not only will he help to demystify the SAG new media contract, but provide unique insight into the future of the industry as a whole.
